

Guest Speaker

Susan Adair, owner of Feast and Fancy, in Springhouse, offered a presentation on tea at a Project Linus Tea Party at the Ambler Senior Adult Activities Center. She described some of the history, romance and medical benefits of the many varieties of tea. Project Linus representative, Barbara Epstein was also on hand to thank SAAC members who have supported the local chapter for the past two years. To date Project Linus has donated more than 800,000 blankets for children in need at various hospitals throughout the country. Call 215-233-1953 for more Project Linus information.
